Join the friends of the Gallery

Learn about art. Meet new people.
Support local artists.
Enjoy Redlands art events.

Friends - what are they?

If you are interested in art, becoming a Friend is the ideal way to add some art to your life. You don't have to be an art expert to join in - you'll find lots of new ways to discover art, whether it's going to an art exhibition opening, or talking to artists about their works.

For an annual subscription of $20, the Friend's programme offers:

- INVITATIONS to the openings of our programme of exhibitions and workshops
- 10% DISCOUNT on gallery purchases of $50 or over.
- MONTHLY NEWSLETTERS of the groups activities.

You will be welcome to meet our artists, and maybe share some pleasant time with them on their regular gallery roster. Tea and coffee is always on tap.

The Old Schoolhouse Gallery

The Gallery is a community-based cooperative of local artists and craftspeople dedicated to the development of the arts in the Redlands.

The Redland City Council supports the gallery.

The main gallery building is part of Cleveland's history. It was built in 1872 for Cleveland's first schoolmaster.

The smaller building served as the Raby Bay station in the steam train days on the Cleveland line.
